Annex A

Directions/Orders for cadets

On Nov 5, 2026, from 1830-2100HRS, Aircrew survival cadets will participate in advanced training at Bear creek Wax wing public use trail in grande prairie at 67th Avenue and 100th Street Grande prairie. This training is optional, but cadets from Aircrew Survival are encouraged to attend. Cadets will undergo a 6.7km hike and some skills testing. Cadets are expected to be prepared for all weather and training as per the list below.

Kit required:

- FTU uniform and/or appropriate Civilian clothing.
- Rucksack
- Equipment and survival kit based on Class work (speak with seniors in chat for details)
- Warm Jacket and Layers (expect to be outside for the duration of the activity)
- Water bottle filled with water
- Snacks (if desired)
- Gloves/Toque/Scarf based on weather conditions
- Headwear based and weather (Tillies or toques only- baseball hat for those in civilian attire

Directions:

67th Avenue and 100th Street Grande Prairie, Parking in Bear Creek R/c Racetrack parking lot.

If you have any questions or concerns, please reach out to the activity OPI: CI Jay Vogelesang

(jay.vogelesang@cadets.gc.ca)

CI Jay Vogelesang

577 Training Staff